 Lesson Summary

Do you want to know what your child learned this week? Read this lesson summary and reflect on what you think about this topic!

God is Creator — He created everything in the world, including you!

 Conversation Starter

Your child will ask you to share from your personal experience! These also appear in the kid's handbook Start Here activity each week.

You will be asked: "Tell me about something that you have made. What did you use to make your creation? Were you proud of it?"

Section/Memory Verses: 1.2 — God Is Holy / Revelation 4:8b

Conversation Starter: When was a time that you had trouble making the right (or good) choice? What makes a choice right or wrong?

 Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Our powerful God created the world and everything in it from absolutely nothing ... and He did it in just six days! Revelation 4:11 says that it was by God's will, or choice, that all things were created. There was a purpose or reason for everything He created. This week, as you face challenging situations, remember that God put thought and purpose into creating you! You can thank God for being your awesome and powerful Creator.

Coming Next Week ...

Section/Memory Verses: 1.3 — God Is Just / Deuteronomy 32:4

Conversation Starter: Tell your child about a time when you were a child and life seemed unfair.

 Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Revelation 4:8b tells us that God is holy; He is perfect and without sin. Because we all sin, we can never measure up to God's standard of holiness. But God loves us too much to expect us to be holy on our own merit. We can be encouraged that when we accept Jesus Christ as Savior the Holy Spirit helps us to live holy lives. John 14:26 tells us that the Holy Spirit will help us, teach us, and make us more like Christ.

Section/Memory Verses: 1.4 — God Is Love / Ephesians 2:4-5

Conversation Starter: How do you like to show love to people?

 Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

By God's very nature, He cannot be anything but just. He is completely reliable, and we can count on Him to be faithful. God's ways are perfect and right, and He is the stability we need every day (Deuteronomy 32:4). When life seems out of control, we can count on God to be completely trustworthy.

Section/Memory Verses: 1.5 — God Is Eternal / Psalm 90:2

Conversation Starter: Can you name three things that would never die or be destroyed?

 Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

As a parent, you may not always like what your child is doing, but you do always love him or her. God's love is the same. Ephesians 2:4-5 says that even when you were living a life controlled by sin, God made you alive with Christ. By sending His Son Jesus to die on the cross, God did what was best for you because He loved you. How can you show that kind of love to your child this week?

Conversation Starter: Tell your child something you have learned about God, and how has it helped you.

 Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Psalm 90:2 says that the God of the universe and Creator of everything has no beginning or end. What a comfort it is to know that when the chaos of life abounds, our God is in control and will never die or be destroyed. Even better is the fact that you can spend eternity with God if you accept Jesus as your Savior. Have you talked with your child about trusting in Jesus? Lesson/Memory Verses: 3.3 — Jesus Is Savior

Conversation Starter: Can you remember a time when you were a child when you got in trouble and were given a consequence? What happened?

Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

Because Jesus lived as a man here on earth (John 1:14) He understands what you are going through when you are tempted and tested (Hebrews 2:18). He never gave in to temptation, but He understands and can help when you are struggling. What can Jesus help you with today? This week, as you face challenging situations, remember that Jesus is God but He also understands the struggles that we go through.

Conversation Starter: What is one thing you really hoped you would get when you were a child? Did you get it?

Encouragement for You

Need some inspiration on the journey?

We all sin and deserve death and to be separated from God. We can never be good enough to save ourselves. Only Jesus Christ could be our Savior. Because He is God, He is sinless. Because He was a man, He had a body that could die for us. Each of us must trust Jesus Christ as Savior by believing that Jesus died on the cross to take our punishment for sin and that He rose to life again. This is all we must do to be saved!

If you have accepted Jesus Christ as Savior, someone shared the gospel with you and you have a faith story to tell. Every faith story is miraculous! As a believer, you have been commanded to go into all the nations to share the gospel (Mark 16:15). You can do that by going to another country; but you should also share the gospel in the country you call home. How often do you share what God has done in your life? There is absolutely nothing you can do by your own merit or effort to save yourself. It is only by God's grace that you are saved. From the moment you are saved, God sees Christ's righteousness instead of your sin when He looks at you. Because of God's grace, Galatians 3:11 tells us that the righteous live by faith. Your child has just finished learning about God, the Bible, redemption, and ways to have an active faith. You have also been on a journey along with him or her, and it's time to celebrate what God is doing in your life. As you look back, what is the one insight that you want to take with you?

Make It Stick

Do you need a creative activity to help with memorizing verses? Read this suggested activity and look for a time this week when you can do this with your child!

Review: Make It Stick — By now you probably know how the best way your child learns his or her verses. Make notes on anything you learned about memorizing. Write down any techniques that proved beneficial with your child. Keep that list and any other ideas handy for the next club next year.
